published the address delivered at the semi-Centennial celebration of the society, by Rev. Dr. Taylor, of Newark. The address is accompanied by a summary of the history of the society, prepared by the secretary, J. V. A. Jones, both colored, offered a horse and wagon for sale at a bazar on North Calvert street yesterday. The proprietors sus-pecting something wrong, had the men ar-rested on suspicion, and they were held at the middle station, after a hearing before Justice Johns, to await developments. Subsequently a dispatch from Washington was received by Marshal Gray, describing a horse and wagon that had been stolen in that city, which corresponded with that found with the two negroes. Last evening Wm. Marshall, a huckster, arrived from Washington and identified the property as his. He was accompanied by Lieut. Vernon, of the Washington detective force. The wagon, with a load of vegetables, had been stolen from a market-house in Washington, and Simmons and Martin were identified as two men who did jobs about the mar-ket-house. The accused and the stolen property were taken to Washington last night. Jones, when arraigned before Justice Johns. maintained that the wagon and horse had been left him by his mother's will. OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY D. C., ? June 24th, 1878. Gentlemen:-I went over the act referred to with care, and did not find any provision postponing the list publication and sale of lands for delinquent taxes. The attention of Congress was called to this, and the omission of further legislation, is a decision that the provisions of the 5th section of the act of March 3d. 1877, are not repealed, as they probably are not, though their enforcement at the times named will work some extra cost and trouble. I recommend that the list be prepared, published, and sales made, as if the act of June 11th, 1878, was not passed. If property owners come in to avail themselves of the provision of the last clause of section three of that law, of course the advertisement and sale, if a sale has taken place, can be treated as not to have taken place and the purchase money refunded to the purchaser, who, as against the owner under this law, will under such circumstances acquire no rights, as now seems to me. As this provision of the third section of the act of June 11, 1878, is one of beneficence to our people, would it not be well to publish it for their information at once? Respectfully, A. G. RIDDLE, Attorney, D. C.

THE SILVER THIEF SENT TO MARYLAND FOR TRIAL.—The police department here received a telegram yesterday from the chief of police of Annapolis, Md., stating that the silver ware recently recovered in this city by our po-lice from a colored man named John Nichols, who was offering a portion of it for sale, corresponds with articles stolen about two weeks ago from the premises of Mr. John G. Butler, of that city. Chief of Police Burlingame, of Annapolis, accompanied by Mr. Butler, arrived here last night, and the latter gentleman recognized the goods recovered, but the thief appears to be a stranger. The officer came fortified with a requisition from Governor Carroll, and the thief was this morning turned over to him. The goods were also returned to Mr. Butler, who left with the officer.

A WARNING TO THE BOYS .- John Knight, a white boy, was before Judge Snell this morning, for trespassing upon the parking of the McPherson Square, and climbing upon the monument. From the testimony it appears that the boys have been in the habit of climbing upon the monuments in that part of the city. He was fined $5. The judge in his remarks said the public parks must be protected. He had no doubt if the boys were allowed they would mount the Greek Slave and sit upon its head. They would make the parks public play grounds, and in a short time the monuments in the city would be destroyed.

POLICE COURT-Judge Snell. To-day, the colored man, Wm. Bruce, who was arrested last night by Officers Jeffries and Slater on the charge of assaulting and beating Sophia Lewison the night of May 2d, was arraigned on the charge. Sophia testified that Bruce was on the street with her in the evening and made a proposal for her to go with him to an unoccupied house for an improper purpose, and on her refusal he dragged her into an alley on 9th street, and, after attempting to outrage her person, kicked and beat her most brutally, leaving her nearly dead. Bruce left the city immediately, and has kept away until last night he was seen for the first time and he was arrested. Dr. Bushnell testified to being called to attend Sophia; found her suf-fering from injuries inflicted upon her abdomen, from bruises, as if made by kicks. Some other witnesses were heard for defence, and the further hearing was continued until tomorrow to allow Dr. Bushnell time to refer to his notes and to the time of his medical services. Louisa Mills and Nancy Taylor were sent down to the workhouse as vagrants. Catherine Dentz, violation of the Sunday law by selling on that day; $20.
